

CEREMONY AND RECEPTION PRIORITY LIST

You and your fiancé can make your own priority charts by ranking the following categories between 1 and 5, with 1 being nonessential and 5 being mandatory. Use the numbers as a starting point for a discussion about what will be a priority at your wedding. You could explain why, say, you gave flowers a 4 and stationery a 1, and he could tell you why he gave reception a 5 and flowers a 2. Adjust the final numbers according to your discussions.
