So Noted

Every gift—big or small, expected or not—should be followed up with a thank you card. The note should be sent as soon as possible, so you want to try to keep up with this as the gifts arrive.

Because you’ll likely be writing many notes, keep them brief. You are not obligated to send an entire letter. Simply begin by thanking the person for the gift, move on to a sentence about how the two of you will use the gift, mention how happy you are that this person could attend the shower or wedding, and close with a second and final thank you.

Use the following worksheet to keep track of your gifts and when the thank you was sent. Photocopy the page so you’ll have enough space to keep track of all of your gifts.
